A Legacy Woven into Every Piece: A Thank You from RHTM

As you reach the end of this catalogue, you have journeyed through more than just a collection of furniture. You have glimpsed the soul of RHTM—a story that begins with a vision of timeless beauty and is propelled forward by love, legacy, and an unwavering commitment to perfection.

Our foundation was laid by Dick Jacques Labuschagne, a man whose hands and heart were dedicated to creating pieces that celebrated authenticity and natural beauty through Rustic Linen. His passing in 2024 was not an end, but a transformation. It inspired the birth of RHTM, a name that courageously carries his spirit forward. “Richard,” my middle name, is the translation of “Dick,” a permanent, heartfelt thread connecting a father’s legacy to a son’s promise. This is the brave power that now fuels our every endeavour—where the strength of our past meets the persistence of our future.

Every item you have seen is a testament to this journey. It is born from a meticulous, global process of envisioning, prototyping, and perfecting, ensuring that what arrives in your space is not merely furniture, but a piece of design with a story. From the serene comfort of our lounge sets to the restful elegance of our bedrooms and the gathering warmth of our dining collections, we believe the details are not the details; they make the design. They are the silent language of quality that speaks for itself, allowing you to create spaces where life’s moments are truly lived.

Our passion, however, finds its true purpose in you—our partners. Whether you are an interior designer curating a dream, a hotel crafting an experience, or a retailer building a collection, we see you. Our B2B philosophy is built on a simple truth: servicing the end consumer is your forte, and empowering your success is ours. We are here to be the reliable, quality-driven foundation upon which you build your own masterpieces.

The journey does not end here. At RHTM, evolution is constant. We are constantly reimagining spaces, and to that end, we launch new, inspiring designs across all our categories every single month. To not keep up is to miss out on the leading designs created for you.

We invite you to become a permanent part of our story. Let us continue to elevate spaces together.

Stay connected with us. For orders, inquiries, or to ensure you receive updates on our monthly launches, please reach out.
